Invitation for the 2014 UILI LABMEETING

Global markets and Global organizations of laboratories

Dear UILI members,

It gives me great pleasure to alert you to the '2014 UILI LABMEETING' that the International Union of Independent Laboratories (UILI) on October 16th and 17th, 2014 will organize in Izmir, Turkey.

Pre-register here

The '2014 UILI LABMEETING' should be seen as an initiative to raise awareness for the importance of the laboratory industry societal level. From this perspective, it also forecasts composite talks: many social and economic aspects of laboratory testing do pass in review by prominent speakers from around the globe.

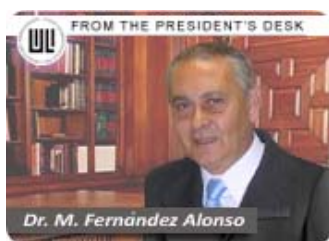

I express the expectation that the '2014 UILI LABMEETING' will give a valuable contribution to the image and authority of the laboratory sector and invite you to reserve Thursday and Friday, October 16th and 17th, 2014 in your calendar.

I refer to the website of UILI (www.uili.org). there you can find all information and documentation concerning our labmeeting.
